General Expectations - All Children

At Woodlands Primary Academy, we aim to ensure that our uniform policy supports inclusion, safety, and pride in our school community. Please note the following:

- Reasonable Adjustments: For children with sensory needs, adjustments can be made in consultation with the child and their parents/carers.
- Footwear in Winter: If boots are worn to school in winter, children must change into plain black shoes once inside.
- Earrings: Only small, plain stud earrings are permitted (e.g., the first pair worn after ear piercing). These must be removed or covered for PE.
- Other Jewellery: No other jewellery should be worn, including rings, bracelets, or necklaces.
- Make-up and Nails: Children must not wear make-up, nail varnish, or acrylic nails.
- Hair: Dyed hair and extreme hairstyles are not permitted, to ensure equity for all families.
- Cultural and Faith-Based Hairstyles: We respect and celebrate all cultures and religions. Children may have their hair styled or covered in accordance with their cultural or religious background.
