Our school is within easy travelling distance from Norwich, Suffolk and surrounding areas. We are a friendly, successful and vibrant two-form entry primary school situated on a large well -resourced site with an impressive outdoor environment. We achieved GOOD OFSTED judgements in all areas of our inspection in 2017 and our team are proud to continue setting high standards and academic achievements for our children as well as offering a supportive and creative learning environment. Our Nursery, Reception and key stage one children enjoy weekly Bushcraft sessions in our wonderful woodland area and our creative music and PE curriculum ensure that all our children have imaginative and high quality lessons.

We are looking for candidates with the imagination, energy and commitment to make a positive difference to our school. We would welcome applicants who:-

- Are able to form positive and supportive relationships with children, parents and work well as part of a team
- Can work proactively and use initiative
- Have good behaviour management skills
- Are calm and patient
- Are intuitive and respond to the children's individual needs
- Believe that every child can succeed

Qualifications/Training

- a minimum of NVQ Level 3 qualification or experience
- GCSE in English and Maths
- Paediatric First Aid would be desirable
- Experience of assessment and planning desirable, although training to be provided.
